GENERATION '71

Cardinal Ritter High School
Indianapolis, Indiana

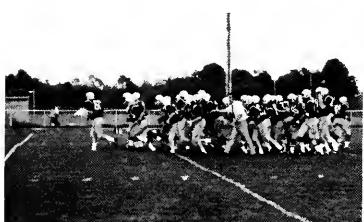

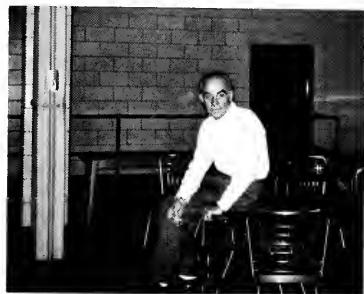

High schools have a unique vantage point from which to view the progress of a city. As generations of youth pass through classes and on to responsibility in the community, they participate in building our city's leaders. Ritter is proud to be a part of our "All America City" and its 150th Birthday Celebration.

Administration

Activating positions

Some duties

(Capable leaders mean organization, efficiency, progress)

Ritter Staff, Parents Share Youthful Spirit

Even high school principals must take a rest at times from their duties as general overseers of school life. Father Cleary certainly deserves a little time to relax!

"United we stand . . ." (or sit, as the case may be) seems to be the motto of Ritter's administrative trio, as they lay plans for the 1970-71 school year. This was the first of frequent conferences for Father Cleary and his two assistants, Sister Annette and Mr. Frank Velikan.

Sister Annette, new to Ritter and modular scheduling this year, handled her job as assistant principal and moderator of NHS, plus working out the scheduling difficulties of many of the students.

Mr. Velikan still manages to project a friendly image as vice-principal, despite the fact that he must handle disciplinary problems also.

Left: Upperclassmen in particular found Mr. Queisser, guidance counselor, a handy aid in making decisions for college and vacations.

Mr. Owens, new to Ritter this year, already has quite a collection of student files.

Even when going over student report cards, smiling Mrs. Dianne greets students entering the guidance office.

"Oh, please, could you write me a check?" is a plea often heard by Mrs. McKenna, as financial bookkeeper.

Just think. If it weren't for Mrs. Hennessy, a lot of the tests couldn't be run off. How about that, students!

Ask her anything having to do with Ritter—even to the spelling of a student's name—and Miss B., secretary (and the school's right arm), can tell you.

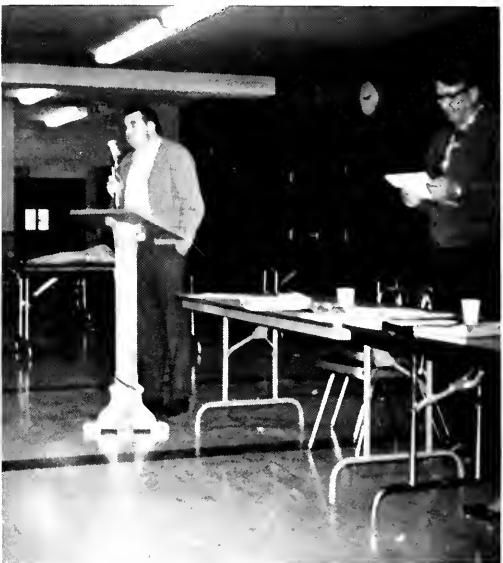

Mrs. Doyle provides a friendly "behind the scenes" helper for busy teachers.

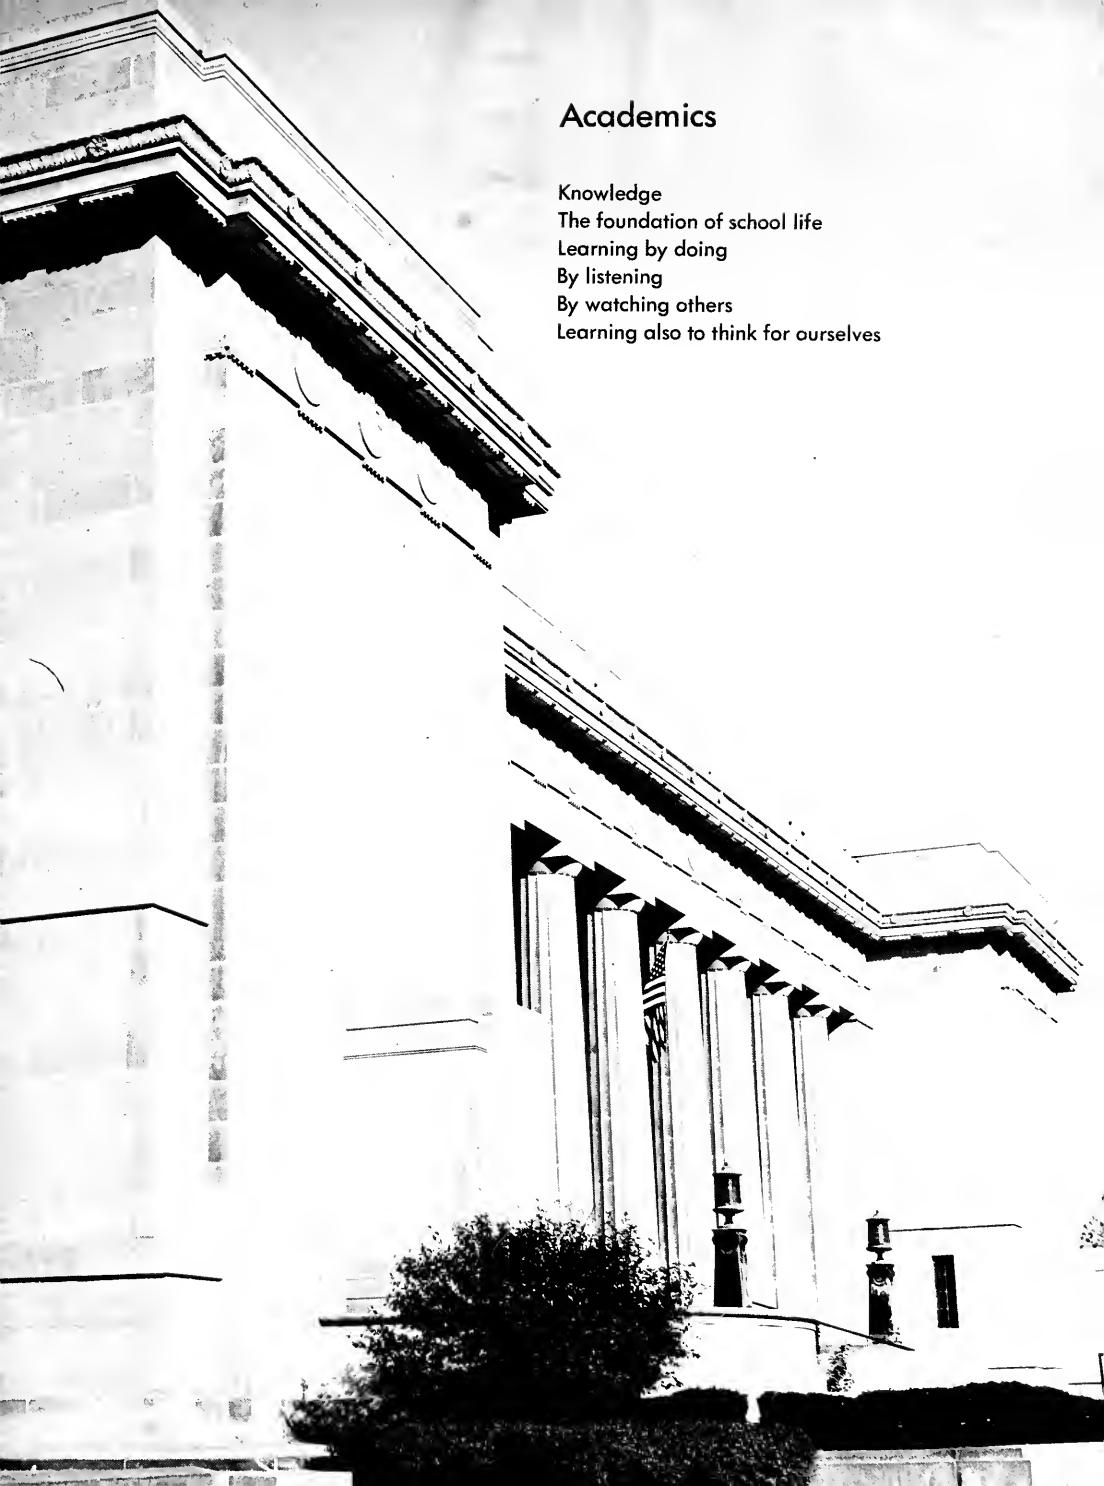

Mr. Reese, Mrs. Beverly Masten, secretary of the organization for '70-'71, and Father Cleary listen to the platform speeches of the candidates for office. Other officers are Mrs. Mary Hutchinson, vice-president; and Mr. John Metallic, treasurer.

Mr. James Polak, president of the Ritter Parents Club for '71-'72, assures the group that he will try to carry on the good work of outgoing president, Mr. Tom Reese.

Mr. Joe Pickett, guest speaker for the Parents Club Appreciation Dinner, brings smiles to Mr. and Mrs. Reese.

Academics

Knowledge

The foundation of school life

Learning by doing

By listening

By watching others

Learning also to think for ourselves

The senior family living course involved a lot of frank discussion about marriage ideas. Sister Marie was able to draw out student opinions by creating a comfortable atmosphere.

Religion Probes Dimensions of Inner Worlds

Junior religion classes enjoyed a change of pace when Father Joseph Ricken, a Maryknoll missionary priest, visited to tell of his experiences abroad.

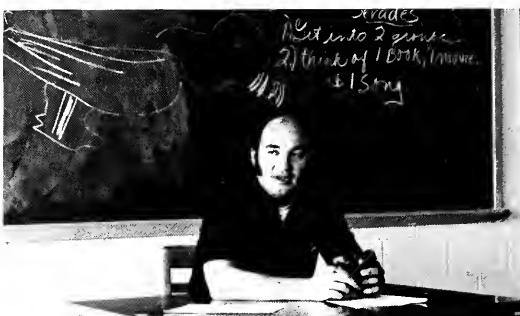

Sister Patricia has little trouble getting juniors to speak out. Her favorite method is using small groups for discussing.

o, this freshman religion class isn't so unruly that it takes two teachers to handle em! This is just team teaching (Father Hillman and Father Hubbs) in action.

Father Pappano and his trusty tape recorder were a familiar happenstance in junior religion classes. Bill Lewis helps select the reading for the day's class.

Above: What words of wisdom is Father Hillman sharing with the class? Below: Isn't marriage study supposed to be a serious proposition? Mr. Black and his family living class don't seem to think so!

What da religion and walking on a lag have to do with each other? Ask Father Hillman and freshmen Tina Trotter, Therese Beeler, Barb Crockett, Duane Besso, and Jim Cesnik.

Language Arts: Medium for Expression

giving their version of "Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid" to their English I class are freshmen Joe Lockner, Theresa Murphy, and David Demjen.

Mrs. Hagist gives sophomores Helen Hubbard and Adrian Graves final instructions before their performance for English III students.

Taking quite some time to find the answer to the problem posed by Miss Athman are students in her second-year English class. Come on, kids, think!

Left: It looks as though Sr. M. Anselm enjoys reading to her business English class! Could it be the students enjoy the listening? Above: They may not be dressed for the parts, but Tanya Domi and Bob Dean are still convincing as Anne Boleyn and Henry VIII in this scene from "Anne of a Thousand Days."

"Cavalcade" magazine seems to have caught the interest not only of the English II students, but of Sister Rose Lima as well.

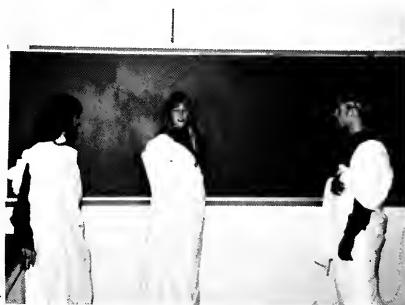

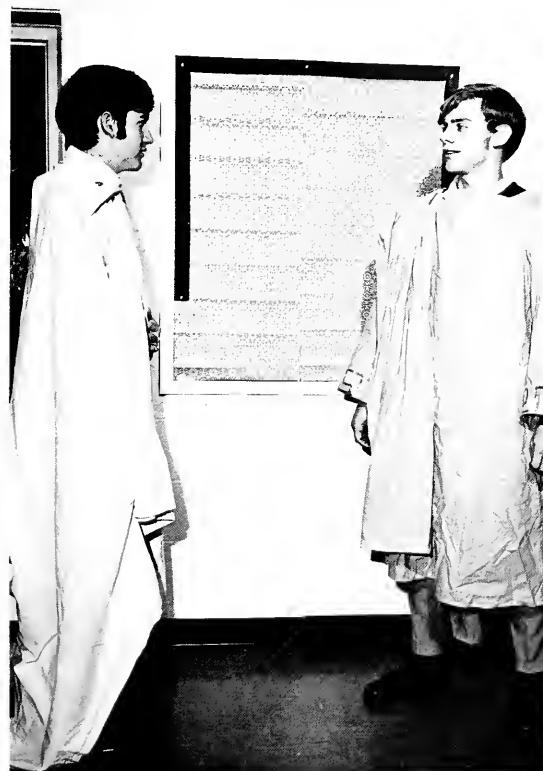

Ready for an "encore" is this appreciative audience of English III'ers. Pray tell, what was the entertainment!

Well, why shouldn't they be proud? Dan Gillespie, Mike Fay, Joe Stevens, and Lavenia Haynes worked hard on these Greek theater projects for English class.

Dave Legge and Bob Trauner found there are some things one has to give up (like fashion) while re-enacting a Greek play!

Above: Mrs. Hagist's speech classes had a chance to prove their thespian ability in performing parts of popular plays. Rick Semmler and Lavenia Haynes do a scene from "Visit to a Small Planet." Right: Only once in a while—before the first day of school, and after the final day—the publications room looks this neat and tidy.

Sister Rose Lima is pleasantly surprised by the farewell party given by her journalism students: Karole Armon, Marla Cirillo, Allen Ewing, Marcia Randell, Linda Potapczak, Lori Babbitt, Ann Bagosy, Tanya Domi, Mike Ratcliff, Paul Kern, and Arbenz Berthoud. They believe that "all work and no play makes a dull class."

Left: On a busy day, the journalism class works to meet a deadline for the "Ritter Reporter." Features, editorials, columns, cartoons—The presses won't wait! Above: Typing facility is an asset to journalism students Linda Potapczak and Marla Cirillo.

Mr. Wyeth explains to his advanced French students the theory of existentialism to be found in one of the novels they are about to read.

Language Study Adds 'Old World' Flavor

Mrs. Bieberich prepares to lead her class through their daily vocabulary and pronunciation drills.

Mrs. Staddan gets ready to play a record narrating the French story her class has been reading.

Social Studies Links Then, Now

Above: Seniors investigate the somber chambers of the State Legislature on the annual field trip to view, first-hand, the workings of government. Right: Mr. Hagist makes use of Resource Center materials to give his government-ecan students an extended view.

Above: For Mr. Laker's World History exam, Jeff Bradford needs to have the world "at his fingertips." Right: Mr. Jenks emphasizes an important point to his American History large group.

As an economics project, Tom Riley scans the stock market columns to see if he has made his first million yet.

Juniors Terri Martella, Ann Metallic, Shannon Crackett, and Dan Malod share with other history students their observations gained from attending sessions of the International Conference on Cities.

Mr. Jenks gets ready to "project" some historical insights.

Nothing like one of Mr. Stoddon's pop biology quizzes to brighten your day, eh, girls?

Science 'Searches'

The mysteries of chemistry unfold to Mary Ann Crugnale, Gisela Alvarez, and Barb Polok.

'Looks like the evil "Physics Gang" is plotting to block out Indianapolis! In reality, Dave Legge and Jim Spychalski (at right), are demonstrating a direct current voltage experiment to classmates Steve Roach, Chris Metallic, Karen Tophorn, and instructor, Mr. John Mulhern.

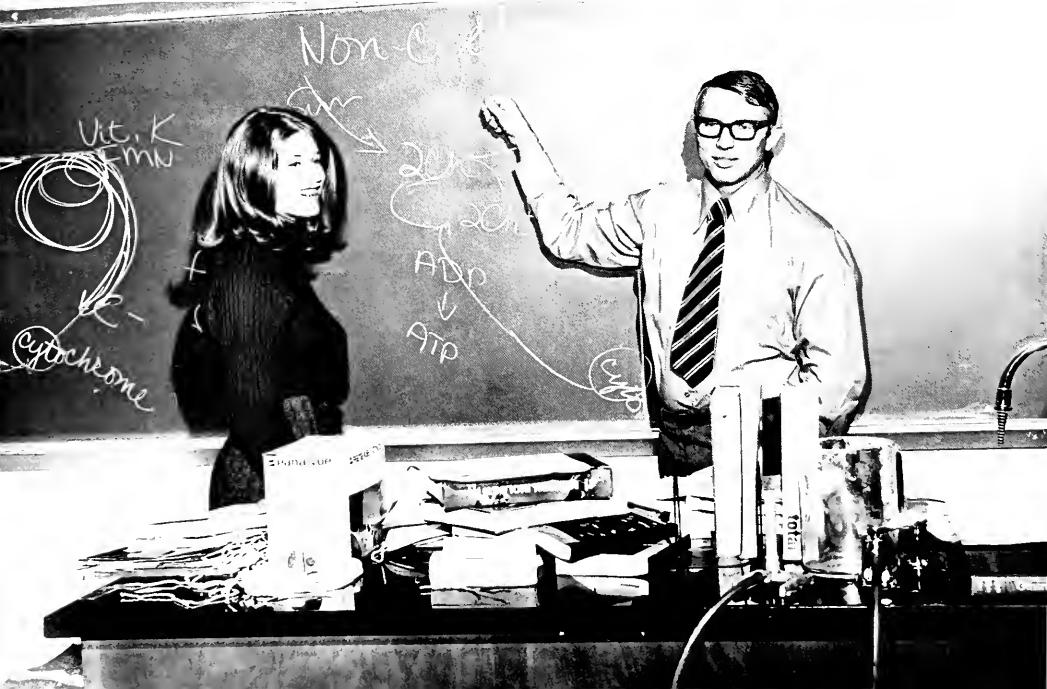

Following the smiling example of moderator, Mr. Steve Rott (second from right), are Science Club officers: Marsha Treadwell, secretary; Marianne Nyikas, treasurer; John Osborne, president; and Bernie Piotrowski, vice-president.

Left top: The freshman health program included guest speakers on social problems, such as alcoholism and drug addiction. Other instructors on health-safety, in addition to Mr. Art Laker (bottom), were Mr. Mike Henderson, and Mr. John Wirtz. Below: Senior Marianne Short finds that studying and "rotssitting" don't always mix.

Advanced Biology instructor, Mr. David Staddon, shows Chris Metallic how easy it is to diagram photosynthesis on a twelve-foot blackboard.

World of 'Signs' Challenges Students

In Algebra II class, Mr. Mulhern reigns as "lord of the logarithms."

Young minds whir behind questioning eyes, as Sister Julann poses a theory to her Algebra I class.

As Mrs. Janet Black hands back Algebra I assignments, Tim Mosten (center), seems indecisive. Around him Joe Oliver, Jeff Noel, and Joe Metallic register hopeful looks.

As part of a practical salesmanship project, Laurie Simon demonstrates his expertise. Has he sold Mr. Hinkle the hi-fi equipment?

Business Program Geared to Practical

This is not a class in Chinese script; it's just Lavenia Haynes, Brenda Harpenau, and Rita Huls keeping pace with Mrs. Radcliffe's shorthand dictation.

Mr. Velikan assists Richard Reeves in solving a perplexing bookkeeping problem.

Left, below: The Typing I class knows that careful erasures, as well as speed and correct posture are important to typing efficiency.

Under Mrs. Radcliffe's direction, Barb Heinrich and Teresa Schaffer develop a new kind of keyboard technique.

Jackie Stonich and friend make use of the Resource Center's shorthand records to improve their skill.

Home Economic Arts: Decorative, Fun

Above: Nimble-fingered seniors Cindy Bell, Agnes Fax, Anna LaCivita, and Peggy Gootee revive the "ancient" art of cracheting. Sister Jane Frances is pleased with Anna's progress. Below: Sister Jane Frances feels that her team of junior gourmets can efficiently prepare a meal that would delight even a connoisseur.

Above: Do you know how to set a table the Emily Post way? Well, the girls in Home Ec. have learned. For further instructions, just ask Jockie Gillespie, Potty Brown, or Kit Persinger. Below: Did Michaelangelo start this way? Probably not. Sister Jane Frances encourages future artists Janice Cooper and Carla Allen, in face of the amusement of Kathy Hurt and the studiousness of Rhonda Price.

Creative Ideas Flow into Colors, Lines, Designs

Don Kelly admires the brush work of Chris Kubiok, but Kevin Blandford seems more interested in his piece of pottery.

As he pours the tallow into the mold, does Greg Craddock realize he has something in common with Ben Franklin? Mike Rhee and Mrs. Pope hope that Gregg knows when to stop pouring.

Mechanical Arts Aims At Technical 'Know-how'

When Chris Easterday runs up against a problem in design, Mr. Lucas is prepared to advise.

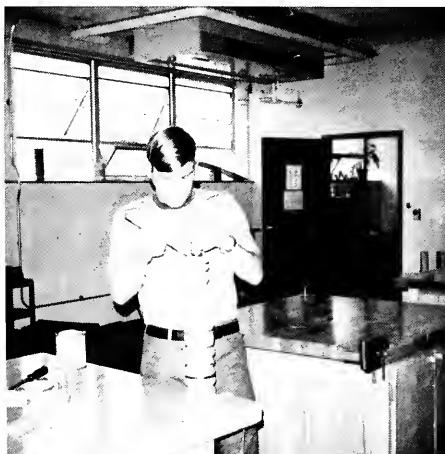

Mr. Lucas aids Bob Brattan in his careful planning, while Steve Minkner and Greg Craddack closely observe.

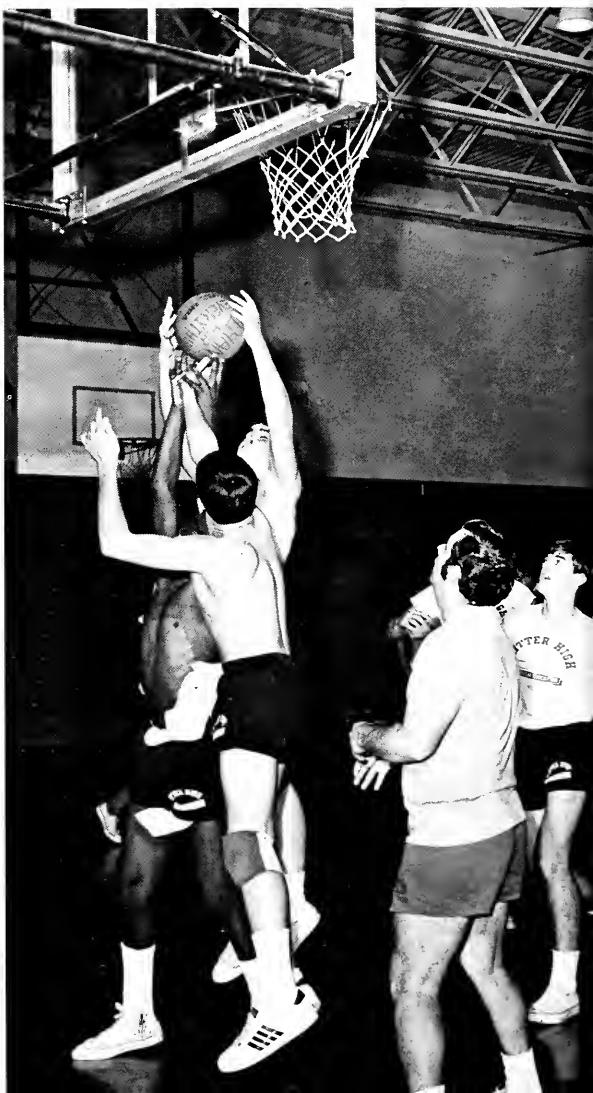

Mr. Lucas shows his approval for the work John Kelly, Bob Stewart and Gary Flanagan have so far done on their various projects.

Left: Hoping they have absorbed sufficient knowledge on the subject, the mechanical arts class concentrates on their exams. Right: Dan Gillespie puts a final varnishing on the hand-made lampbase he has just completed.

Phys Ed: Fitness Indoor, Outdoor

Ritter boys, directed by Mr. Henderson and Mr. Laker; and girls, supervised by Mrs. Scott, run, jump, tumble, participate in vigorous intramural competition. Ask some exhausted Phys ed student to describe one of the famous Henderson games.

Study Areas Span Varied Student Needs

Two phases of independent study introduced this year were the Learning Center, a place for individual tutoring; and the honor pass system which allowed students to leave Ritter during free modules to visit local public libraries. The Learning Center, the Resource Center, the library, and the cafeteria are areas for varied activities, whether independent study periods are spent researching projects, talking assignments over with classmates, adding dimensions to learning with audio-visual equipment, or merely relaxing.

Having to smooth out the first year wrinkles in the Learning Center didn't prevent Mrs. Jeanette Fricke, moderator, from giving individual attention to students such as Jayce Owens.

Art work done by Ritter students and those of Manual High added color to the walls of the Learning Center.

Mrs. Hazel Nowling, one of the hard working mothers who staff the Resource Center, can always look for help from her daughter Carolyn.

Activities

Different people

Different ideas

Different results

Together they prove that "Variety is the spice of life"

Together they make high school life what it is

Thanks to officers Chuck Heyob, treasurer; Anna LaCivita, secretary; Dan Gillespie, president; and Joe Stevens, vice-president, seniors were granted their privileges early in the year.

Perhaps the busiest class officers this year were juniors Clara Caito, treasurer; Anne Fitzgerald, secretary; Dick Hester, president; and Bob Dean, vice-president. Moderators Mrs. Scott and Father Pappano were frequently called on to help with the candy sale and prom plans.

Decorating homerooms at Christmas was just one of the activities enthusiastically supported by the sophomores, led by president Nancy Tapharn, secretary Jeanne Milharcic, treasurer Vickie Hennessy, and vice-president Mary Jane Jordon.

SEB: Raider Power For Raider Action

Mr. David Staddan, faculty moderator, discusses coming Executive Board elections with old officers, and candidates for '71, '72.

National Honor Society Signifies Excellence

Happily reflecting on how fast the honor roll board fills with names are Sister Annette and National Honor Society Officers: Chris Metallic, president; Ann Fitzgerald, treasurer; Kathy Schuler, vice-president; and Mary Hutchinson, secretary.

Above: President Chris Metallic welcomes parents, students and teachers to the National Honor Society induction ceremony. Right: Mrs. Doris Kubiak is the very proud mother of daughter, Marianne, newly inducted member of the Honor Society.

Musicians Merit Awards, Applause, & Approval!

Music is a real focal point in today's world—especially with its innovations in sound and style. Ritter's music department, in striving for "that perfect note" managed to entertain throughout the school year, while winning numerous awards in state-wide competition. The annual Christmas show had the largest audience ever this year, and the band's cooperation with 'Take It From The Top' contributed to the fun and over-all success.

Still somewhat incredulous over the concert band's first place division showing is Mr. Ted Hinkle, band director. Could it have been his flashy outfits that gave the "little extra something" to their performances this year?

'Candyland Revisited', a Christmas production involving the entire music department, offered a variety of singing, ballet, routines—even candy!

The concert band is Ritter's most serious musical group. But you can bet they were smiling when they were informed of their first place in state division competition!

Somehow Ritter's marching band came up with five smashing half time shows—even during those hectic times when there were only two days to put it all together! This cooperative spirit enabled the group to represent Ritter well during appearances at games and competitions.

The stage band looks so natural in their outdoor setting! They must also be naturals at their music, for they won a first in their division in state competition.

The Ritter Singers have had an active year: performing in two major school productions, touring hospitals, caroling, etc. Perhaps this explains the group's particular closeness.

Ritter's corps members have shown themselves to be not only an asset to the band, but also a form of entertainment all their own. Patty Parshall, as head majorette, and Mrs. Connie Hagist designed their always-interesting routines.

Performing both on stage and behind the scenes were corps officers: Anne Fisher, uniform manager; Mary Jo Gude, property manager; Patty Parshall, head majorette; Rhonda Price, assistant choreographer; and Sherry Borrett, business manager.

The marching band reaped in more awards this year than in any other! Holding their additions to Ritter's trophy case are Karen Crawford and Linda Charleton with drum major awards; Mr. Hinkle and Kathy Schuler with her drum major grand champion runner-up trophy; and Steve Raach and Debbie Lambert with awards merited during summer competition.

Obviously proud of the marching band's summer accomplishments are officers Clare Trauner, librarian; Mike Medjeski, librarian; Joanna Kelley, secretary; Carol Plummer, uniform assistant; and Kevin Blandford, property manager.

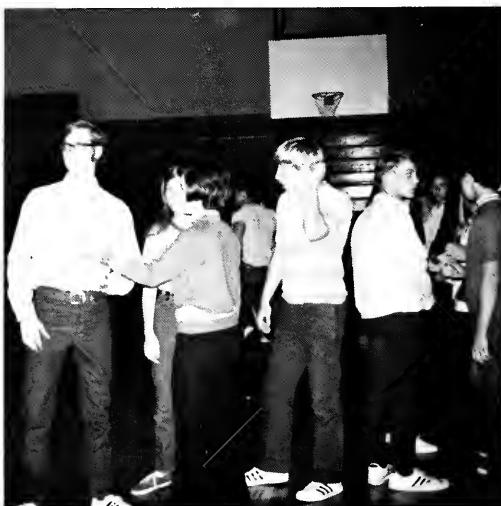

Bob Dean (left) as King Arthur, Bob Trauner as Lancelot, and Diane Kurzawa as Guenevere execute a moving presentation that helped gain a "Best Scene" award for "Camelot" from the faculty judges. Congratulations, Mr. HI!

'Take It from the Top' Wins Standing Ovations

From its high kicking opening scenes to the flag-waving grand finale, "Take It From the Top," Ritter's first musical, was acclaimed as an exciting evening of entertainment by audience, cast, and crew. Mrs. Connie Hagist, who first conceived the idea of combining scenes from thirteen different Broadway musicals, was assisted by Mrs. Sherri Scott, Miss Tina Peck, Mr. "Duffy" Hagist, and Mr. Ted Hinkle in directing over 150 Ritter students, who took part in the musical. Despite grumblings over late rehearsal hours, rushed meals, and missing costumes, the general comment after the final performance was "Let's do it again!"

Mrs. Connie Hagist (center) worked tirelessly as faculty director of "Take It From the Tap." Behind Mrs. Hagist, Dave Richey reflects the "organized" manner of the last few rehearsals.

Master of ceremonies, Mike Ratcliff portrayed an old actor whose memories of the theater were brought to life, on stage, as the different scenes.

The darkened wings create a murky backdrop for the mystifying workings of lighting crew members Jeff Raach and Tom Riley. Other lighting crew members were Mike Gathman and Joe DeFabis.

Student director, Tanya Domi, calms opening night jitters moments before "Cabaret" and "Oklahoma" go on.

Junior Barb Polak received the Best Actress Award for her performance as Cockney flower peddler, Eliza Doolittle, from "My Fair Lady."

The "Camelot" singers stood resolutely, as directed by their coach, Miss Tina Peck.

In this scene from "Bye, Bye, Birdie," Susie Caldwell, Mary Jo Gude, and Cathy Caldwell tie up the telephone lines while Dick Hester tries to get through.

Despite male protests, the makeup crew worked deftly to apply just that right touch of rouge or mascara. Below, Marianne Nyikos readies Bob Dean for "Oklahoma."

As the valiant but misguided Don Quixote, Mike Ratcliff attempts to explain his "quest" to a doubting Aldanza, Linda Patapczak.

The concert band, directed by Mr. Ted Hinkle, provided intermission enjoyment by playing an overture of songs from the different musicals in "Toke It From the Tap."

Dave Legge leads the "wom-enfolk" in the song "If I Were a Rich Man" from "Fiddler on the Roof," while wild Cossacks: Greg Rae-buck, Jeff Bradford, and Jim Rae-buck, dance in the back-ground.

'Camelot' Relives Romance and Excitement

Mike Roberts and Anna LaCivita, King and Queen of the '71 junior-senior prom "Camelot" are crowned by last year's royalty, Mike Hall and Patty Quinn. Below: Mike and Anna reign over their court: Dan Masten, Patty Beck, Terry Hennessy, Mary Jo Gude, Dan Gillespie, Cindy Bell, Cathy Caldwell, David Legge, Agnes Fox, John Adams, and Peggy Gaatee. Sherry Barrett, Chuck Heyab and Mike Nael are not pictured.

International Dinner: Friendly Get-Together

For the foreign language department, the biggest bash of the year is always the International Dinner, where one is served special dishes native to each country represented. It is ever-popular with both the students and their parents. The planning for the dinner takes several weeks, and almost three days for the actual cooking and decorating. However, volunteers are not hard to find. Everyone likes to pitch in and help because the gay chatter and spirit puts them in a light-hearted mood. But the majority of credit for our successful dinners must go, of course, to Mr. Wyeth and Mrs. Staddon, heads of the French Department; and to Mrs. Bieberich, head of the Spanish Department, for their expert guidance and hearty efforts. Thanks must also be given to Mr. Staddon who worked hard all day, and did a superb job of pouring the wine.

Adding music to the lively Spanish atmosphere were Detlef (Poncho) Bischart, Ray's brother, and Roy Mejia.

Taking a short breather after singing Spanish folk songs were Ilona Gonzalez, Maria Granda, Lucy Pineras, Marianne Nyikos and Eileen Land.

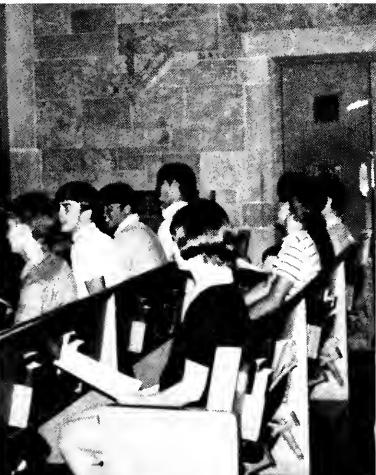

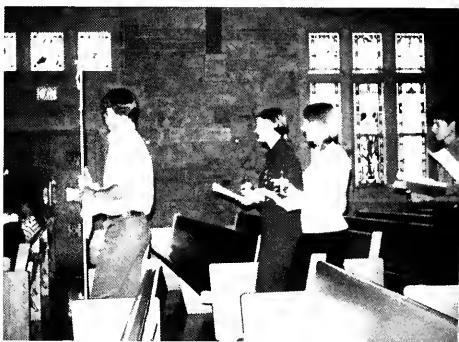

Dick Hester, Jim Roebuck and Mrs. Bieberich set up displays and decorate tables for the dinner. Vicki Gootee, Alice Miller, Mrs. Staddon, and Margaret White dish out servings of the Bœuf Bourguogne they have prepared. Who's this we catch working in the kitchen? Might it be Bill Lewis?

French Liturgy Shared

For a new school activity this year, Mr. Wyeth of the French Department put on a special mass spoken entirely in French. Anyone who wished to attend was welcome and, of course, Ritter's French students made up most of the congregation. Father Stephen Happel led the Mass, and Rick Brodnick and Randy Flajis were the servers.

'Reporter' Keeps Students Informed and Interested

Supervision and a "professional final touch" were added to the paper by moderator Sister Rose Lima.

Helping each other to find that perfect word before the deadline are Allen Ewing, Tanya Domi, Marla Cirillo, Sherree Lizar, Mike Ratcliff, Clarence Griffen, Karale Armon, and Linda Potopczak.

The Raider Girls sponsored an invitational tourney this year which was estimated at being the first girls' tournament held in Indiana since 1920. Marked by their high degree of skill and enthusiasm, our girls came in second place. Above: They bottle Ben Davis for the championship.

Cheerleaders Spark Spirit

The Freshman cheerleaders, ready, willing and able to give their all for the Roider teams are Terry Jardan, Mary Ann Quinn, Leslie Unboncic, Denise Nojem, JoAnn Janes and Judy Roberts.

Lower Left: Mrs. Scott, maderatar, deserves much of the credit for teaching the girls clever routines and rousing cheers. Lower Right: It takes a lot to be a good cheerleader, and these reserves have what it takes. Sheri Hill, Patty A. Farrell, Mary Pineres, Lisa Ritter, Barb Trittipi and Cindy Blazic.

Raiders: Proud in Triumph; Strong in Defeat

Recognized as outstanding gridders for the '70 season are Dave Bullock, All City Honorable Mention; Richard Hall, All Conference; Mike Roberts, All City Honorable Mention and All Conference; Bob Dean, All City and All Conference; Mike Noel, All Conference; Tom Reese, All City Honorable Mention. Also receiving All City Honorable Mention is John Adams.

Members of the 1970-71 varsity basketball team were: M. Reedus, D. Crawe, B. Bills, R. Gibson, S. Paetz, R. Hall, B. Lewis, D. Masten, T. Hennessy, and M. Roberts. Kneeling are coach Mr. Mike Henderson and assistant coach Mr. Jim Jenks.

Name of the Game: Teamwork + R.H.D.

Always a bear on the ball, Richard Hall maneuvers inside for a hard-earned bucket.

Has Ritter decided we only need Duane Crawe and Dan Masten to beat Sceina? Or did the team agree it's not necessary to hustle down court? Well, whatever the tactics, we won the game!

"Pistol Pete" Paetz prepares to pop a pair of points.

Reserve basketball players were, Kneeling: C. Davis, S. Stewart, T. Bills, D. Legge, M. Rast, and D. Richey. Standing: Manager J. Osborne, K. Miller, L. Myrvold, M. Stegar, M. Wilson, J. Cachran, and coach Mr. Jim Jenks.

Mr. Henderson goes through pregame formalities with referees and opposing coach.

Members of the 1970-71 freshman basketball team, Kneeling: J. Banich, B. Nahas, D. Jugg, J. Noel, E. Blair, B. Nester, and T. Fisher. Standing: R. Crawe, T. Masten, J. Metallic, D. Demjen, M. Dolan, C. Schwanekamp, D. Jugg, V. Rak, and S. Schaffer. Coach John Wirtz, in his first year, proved himself able to work his men into a tough team.

Terry Hennessy, smallest man on the squad, lends support underneath to the taller front-liners Steve Paetz, Ran Gibson, and Richard Hall.

Terry Hennessy grabs a quick two on a break-away lay-up.

Wrestlers 'On Top' in More Ways Than One!

Wrestlers chosen for their extra "oomph" on the mat were: Mike Noel, Most Improved; Mark Matkovic, Most Valuable; and captain Jerry Bradford, Best Attitude. Coach Duffy Hogist helped bring the team to three school records and an 8-4 season record.

Junior Mark Markovic grappled for a 22-2 record, placed second in city and regional tourneys, and first in the Capital District meet and the sectionals. He's one 110+ pounder not to be tangled with!

Track Team Breaks Own Record

Joe Pryar, dubbed Squeekie by "those left behind," runs a blazing 100-and 220-yards. For the third consecutive year he has received the award for accumulating the most points for the track team.

Reserve coach Mr. Dave Staddan, left, and varsity coach Mr. John Mulhern, right, had a team small in numbers, but this led to greater participation and more experience from those individuals who persisted throughout the season.

Roberts Captures Third In City Tourney

Above: Dan "W" Malad shows his action shot that may merit him first man next year, replacing seniors Mike Roberts and Mike Marley. Below: Ritter returnees Dan Malad, Jae Metallic, Butch Siman, and Tony Dinkel hope to better this year's impressive 12-5 record that placed the team fifth in the city.

Anticipation, Nostalgia Mark Graduation

Above: At Ritter's Fourth Annual Commencement, Father Cleary reviews the accomplishments of the 127 graduates of the Class of '71.
Below: The Most Reverend George J. Biskup, Archbishop of Indianapolis, gives a congratulatory handshake to Mike Grimes.

In addition to the dignity of "Pomp and Circumstance," the musical setting for the '71 commencement included the Hallelujah Chorus from "The Messiah," performed by the Ritter Choir. Dave Legge, Cheryl Matkovic, and Bob Trauner were chosen by the class to deliver its message. Ritter mothers chose to say their congratulations with flowers: roses for the girls, carnations for the boys.

Assistant yearbook editor Karen Taphorn, editor Chris Metallic, and staffer Mary Ellen Grass are glad yearbook pages aren't really this large. All those 500 word captions and 20 inch headlines would be too much!

Competent Staff Powers 'Generation '71'

Right: Marilyn Merkley and Betty Marier, devoted typists.

Services

Supporting each other

Helping ourselves

Lending a hand to others

And receiving a hand in return

Keeping the '71 yearbook's finances out of the red was due to the expertise of Sister Julann, assistant yearbook moderator, and her business manager Phyllis Loviscek. A successful advertising campaign and subscription drive, and the preparation of an attractive advertising section for the yearbook don't just happen.

WE'VE COME A LONG WAY FROM THE LITTLE DOG AND HIS HORN.

A long way since 1906 when the Victrola® phonograph was introduced. And Nipper heard His Master's Voice.

Now it's the 70's and we haven't even stopped for breath. Our latest milestone is Dimesia III stereo. A complete audio center for the home. Stereo phonograph, AM/FM Stereo radio, and tape cassette recorder. All in one.

Sealed Cushionaire speakers give such power and depth to the bass, they can actually blow out a match.

The Computer Crafted radio tuner is designed to pull in hard-to-get signals and separate crammed-together stations.

We back all this up with an amplifier of 200 watts peak power.

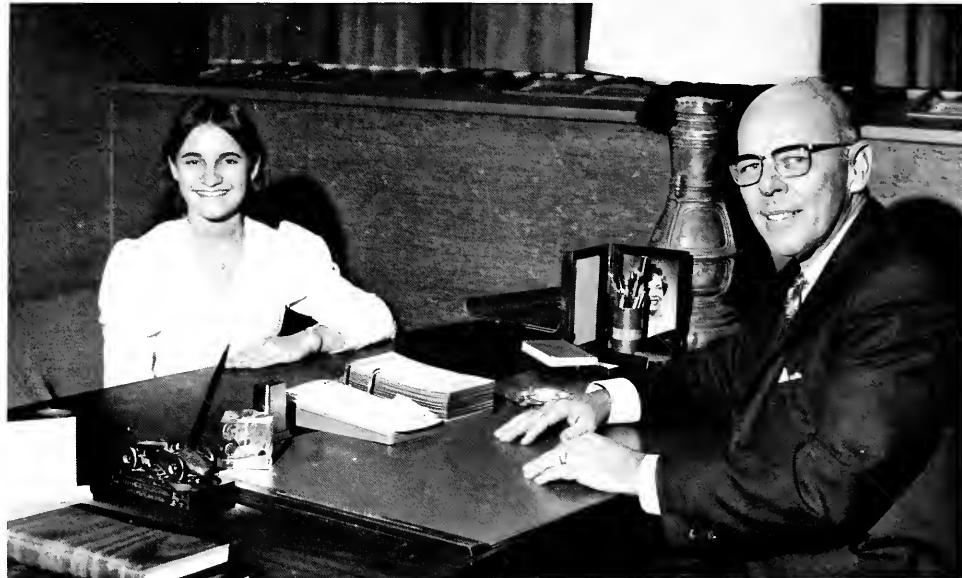

Dimesia III. You've never seen anything like it before. As for Nipper, he'd never have thought of it in his wildest dreams.

But Dimesia III stereo isn't all we have in sound. You'll find many other phonographs, tape instruments and radios in the RCA line. In all sizes and shapes. And all in the RCA tradition of quality that stretches back 64 years.

We got our start in sound. And we haven't lost our voice. Not by a long shot.

New vibrations from an old master.

RCA
